Carolina Renvall speaks about the piece of clothing that will lead her to success. Jonah wrote this revealing article (LM).

Carolina Renvall is likely to be a future top model. She has done some work already, and with excellent results!

Carolina is working as a model for the internationally not yet so famous designer Ida Karlsson. The two girls got to know each other when they were teammates in Team Action, and they seem to get along pretty well. Friendship 4ever, I would guess.

Carolina was absolutely gorgeous as she wore Ida's latest creation. The dress is called 'Butterfly'. Carolina's comment on the dress was that it was nice and beautiful, but in the summerheat a bit unpleasant to wear.

-"It's hot in this dress!", Carolina commented. "The fabric doesn't breath!"

As a little footnote, the dress was originally designed to be worn by Ida herself on 'penkkis', the last day of school in the Finnish Upper Secondary. As 'penkkis' is in mid-February, Ida maybe didn't come to think that Carolina would have to sweat herself to a "near death"-experience... But miss Renvall understands better and has the perfect compromise solution: She drinks a lot of water! ▪
